MCSO Arrests a 15-Year-Old for Damaging Several Cars in an Attempt to Steal

Henrietta, NY (June 21, 2023) Today at about 1:00 in the morning, Monroe County Sheriff's deputies responded to an apartment complex on Murphy Place in the Town of Henrietta for a male breaking into cars. Upon arrival, deputies located a teen sitting in the driver's seat of a Kia with a broken window. When the suspect saw the deputies, he exited the car and started running. After a brief foot chase, deputies detained and identified him as a 15-year-old from Henrietta. After further investigation, deputies located four vehicles with damage indicative of attempted theft. Two vehicles were at the apartment complex and two others at a nearby business on W. Henrietta Road.

Deputies arrested and charged the 15-year-old with:
- Attempted Grand Larceny in the Third Degree (Class E-Felony)(2 Counts)
- Criminal Mischief in the Third Degree (Class E-Felony)(2 Counts)
- Criminal Mischief in the Fourth Degree (Class A-Misdemeanor)(2 Counts)

The juvenile was arraigned in Monroe County Family Court and released to his guardian with an electronic monitor.
